Golden Magnolia's Roots Are Influenced — In Part — To The 3,000-Year-Old Great Silk Road

When you first step foot in Golden Magnolia, you'll likely notice the subtle influences of its beautiful Uzbekistani styling and traditions. One reason behind this will become apparent when you meet one of our owners, Marina Glikina. She proudly hails from Uzbekistan, a landlocked country in Central Asia with a long history dating back over 3,000 years.

The Great Silk Road was an ancient network of trade routes that connected the East and West, spanning countries such as China, India, Persia, and the Roman Empire. Uzbekistan was an important stop on the Silk Road. Today, Uzbekistan continues to reflect its rich history through its traditional style and culture.

Whether you're visiting Golden Magnolia or exploring Uzbekistan on your own, you are sure to be captivated by this beautiful country's rich history and timeless traditions. Hospitality is a deeply ingrained part of Uzbek society, and visitors are always made to feel welcome. If you're looking to experience the exotic beauty and rich history of Uzbekistan, there's no better way to do it than by following the path of the Silk Road — right here in Daytona Beach.

When you visit The Golden Magnolia, ask Marina about her friendly heritage. She'll happily share some of her "built-in hospitality" with you.

“It was like being going back to the Great Gatsby era —

Imagine closing your eyes and being magically transported back into a time of glitz and glamour of The Roaring 20s. That's exactly what guests of the 2022 Baron Ball experienced last month. The glammers evening was held at the Halifax River Yacht Club just up the street from Golden Magnolia Hotel. It was a setting right out of the Great Gatsby era. When the doors opened, guests with a glass of champagne, and tasty appetizers. Many guests were dressed in authentic costumes and flowing gowns. Proceeds benefited the 'Carl & Patti Rang Scholarship Fund.'

We were honored to be a sponsor of the Baron Ball, an unforgettable evening of delicious food, beautiful live music, and excellent company. Guests were treated to a wonderful salad and a delicious dinner featuring filet mignon, succulent seafood, and all the trimmings. Throughout the evening, guests were accompanied by the talented pianist, whose beautiful playing set the perfect tone for an evening of celebration.

After dinner, guests moved to the dance floor for some lively music and dancing. The entertaining musician sang a variety of songs that had everyone up on their feet and moving to the beat. With its festive atmosphere and stunning backdrop of the setting sun over the harbor and Halifax Marina, it was truly a magical evening that we will remember fondly for years to come. And we look forward to partnering with our business neighbors again next year at this truly special event.

‘Casper The Friendly Ghost’ Has Nothing on The Golden Magnolia Resort

Our Golden Magnolia Resort has a long and storied history, having been built in 1871 to serve as one of the premier destinations for overnight guests in the city.

Over the years, this charming bed-and-breakfast has attracted visitors from all walks of life, including members of the prominent Wannamaker, Gamble, and Vanderbilt families. Additionally, its rich history has also drawn in railroad moguls, cattle barons, and lumber mill owners to spend time within its hallowed walls.

Today, the Golden Magnolia (once called The Live Oaks Inn) continues to be a popular place for travelers looking for a unique and authentic experience. Boasting luxurious guest-rooms as well as other amenities, like an intimate dining room, breezeway deck and verandas, our historic bed-and-breakfast remains one of the most renowned hotels along the Florida coast.

Thanks to its reputation among those in the paranormal community as a "friendly" hauntings hotspot, visitors can always look forward to experiencing a little excitement during their stay with us. Just don't forget to be on your best behavior! After all, ghosts are known to be friendly to nice people and unforgiving with those who aren't respectful of their home.

... Boo!
